

Jane Tutoki serves as a Director of FGH Parent and FCIC. In addition to her role as a Director, Jane Tutoki also serves on the Board of Directors for Sedgwick. Prior to that, Jane spent 4 years as the Global CEO of Cunningham Lindsey, a provider of independent loss adjusting and claims management services in more than 60 countries. Before joining Cunningham Lindsey, Jane served as Global Head of Claims Operations for AIG Property and Casualty and worked as both Head of Americas Region and Executive Director of Global Insurance for Xchanging PLC. Jane held several senior positions at Zurich Financial Services, including Global Chief Claims Officer and Chief Claims Officer, North America Commercial Division. She began her career as a litigation attorney, working for numerous insurance companies, and later serving as in-house counsel at Hartford Financial Services. Jane holds a Juris Doctor degree and is a Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter. She was a Director for 6 years on the Board of Electricidad de Caracas, the electric company serving most of Venezuela. She is active in the insurance industry and is a past Chancellor of the CLM College of Insurance. We believe Ms. Tutoki is a valuable member of our board because of her experience as an executive at other companies in the insurance industry and her knowledge of the financial services industry.
